To Samuel D. Sink

Samuel D. Sink

B.A. Appalachian St. Un.
M.A. Un. of Missouri

Your sincerity in trying to enhance our artistic nature inspires us.
Your determination, your efforts
spur us on.
Your friendliness, your cooperation, your devotion,
to all you have known
makes us love you.

We hereby dedicate this SCC annual —

Look at the use of language — Marvel at it — Be fascinated by it —
Be entertained.

Like an instrument when played upon —
it enhances the mind —
and carries the conscious beyond the realms of fantasies.

PRESIDENT OF SOUTHEASTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

I believe it was Tenneyson who said "We are a part of all whom we have met." The way we behave, think, and act reflects our many encounters with living souls everywhere — past or present, person-to-person or vicariously, for better or for worse.

And so it is that we spend considerable time and effort here at SCC planning and carrying out those many encounters with you, our students. If we are to become a part of your behavior from now on, and those whom you meet, and so forth, then we must take that responsibility very seriously.

After your encounter here, you'll never be the same person. If you so desire, you can become more knowledgeable, skillful, resourceful, and confident. And we can assure you that you will emerge a very important person — for we never forget or cease serving our students while they are enrolled or afterward; and we never cease learning from you.

Thank you for being a part of our ever-growing college community. Join with us in our zeal to improve each other's lives, and in our joy of seeing our influence toward a greater society. The joy is eternal!

Dr. W. Ronald McCarter

SCC CHOIR

SCC's Choir, under the direction of Mr. Richard Burkhart, presents its annual Spring Concert.

Entertaining in Florida, the choir worked hard to gain praise well deserved.

In Disneyland, SCC's choir performed for many. The experience gained from the trip will never be forgotten but always treasured in their hearts and minds.

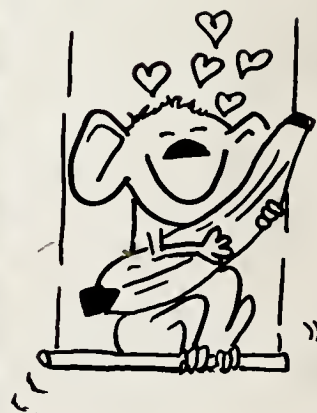

Mr. E.T. Clemmons, a great contributor and supporter of SCC, helped make the choir's trip possible. His interest in SCC and its students is much appreciated.

SPRING FESTIVAL

Spring Festival '77: The Spring Festival, which now is an annual event at SCC, was put together by the SGA and their advisor, Bob Priest. The Spring Festival was held so that students and staff could have an informal gathering prior to graduation and summer quarter. From the "pig-picking" to the softball games, fun was had by all.

FOUNDATION DINNER

The SCC Foundation sponsored its first dinner/theatre on April 30, 1977. Judge Raymond Mallard was Honorary Chairman of the event which raised over $3,000 profit for the Foundation. The SCC Foundation raises local funds to match with Federal Funds for Student Financial Aid.

One-hundred and seventy supporters of the Foundation attended the $25 per plate event. The guests were served a delicious steak dinner and enjoyed a delightful performance entitled "Heroes and Hard Cases."

The production was conducted by the Alpha-Omega Players, a nationally acclaimed tour group from Rockport, Texas.

Mr. Harold Wells, SCC Foundation Board of Directors, presents a plaque to Mrs. Emily Peal for her outstanding job as Chairperson of Foundation's Annual Fund Drive.

COSMETOLOGY

Cosmetology Class Presents "Our Unknown Future": During the Spring Quarter of '77, the Cosmetology Class at SCC held its annual Spring Hair-Styling Contest. The competition drew 32 students, with their models, to vie for the coveted trophies. This year's contest, with the theme of "Our Unknown Future," played to an enthusiastic audience in the SCC Auditorium. The student cosmetologists were judged on execution, originality, adaptability, and the total look.

GRADUATION

'77

Commencement exercises at SCC were held Sun., May 29 in outdoor ceremonies, with 325 students receiving associate degrees or certificates.

UPWARD BOUND

Upward Bound, a program operated in conjunction with the Special Services Program at Southeastern Community College, provides educational experiences for 50 high school students. These students come to the campus during the summer for six weeks of intensive academic and cultural enrichment. During the school year these students also come to campus one Saturday a month for academic work. Tutors and other resources are made available to these students to assist them in their high school courses and to aid in their eventual entrance to college.

SCC NURSING PROGRAMS

SCC's Nursing Programs: Degrees are presented annually to Associate and Registered Nursing graduates at SCC. An impressive Commencement program is held in their honor.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT

The Child Development Program at SCC offers two options to our students. They may enroll in our one year, Child Care Worker Program, or in the two year "Early Childhood Specialist" Program. With the use of our laboratory school, students learn both physical and psychological characteristics of the preschool child, as well as learning to be an effective adult in a pre-school program.

REGISTRATION FALL QUARTER SEPT. 1 AND 2 NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS

BACK TO THE BOOKS

Registration for New and Returning Students: Registration for Fall Quarter took place Sept. 1 and 2, 1977. Students worked their way through the lines completing forms, making their ID cards, having yearbook pictures taken, selecting and scheduling classes and whatever else it took to begin the Fall Quarter off right.

Everyone was involved in one way or another with Fall Registration. It took many hands to make it successful and smooth. The Yearbook Staff contributed to the excitement with its involvement of school pictures, sales of Rambling Yearbook, refreshments at the end of the line and general information for new students.

COLLEGE DAY

Messengers, filled with information concerning the college of your choice, gather for a few hours each year on the SCC campus. In 1977 the college day activities were held on October 5th from 10:30-12:00 A.M. on the porch of the new multi-purpose building and in the student lounge.

Crowds amassed as high school students from the county arrived to partake of the knowledge of approximately 70 college representatives.

Southeastern students, concerned with the a future beyond SCC also gathered information to take away, digest and decide upon.

College Day provides a unique opportunity to students with questions answerable only by a college representative who imparts correct knowledge concerning the college he represents.

MS SCC PAGEANT

Ms. SCC, a honor, excitement, disappointments, dedication, fun, all fitting words describing the emotions involved in our pageant. Through the efforts of the director, Sue Hawks and the technical director, W.C. Butler, the SCC pageant has evolved into a highly competitive and entertaining event. Open to any female SCC student, the pageant offers the participant a different dimension in campus life. The competition is great as each contestant competes in four areas, including streetwear, talent, swimsuit, and eveningwear. Also involved in the course of events is an individual preliminary interview with the judges. A real insight into the girls personality and ability to represent SCC is gained.

"And the winner is . . . Teresa Dawn Hicks of Wilmington, NC" A potential nursing student, Teresa is a freshman at SCC. Her on-stage talent consisted of a jazz dance routine to the tune Dazz. She will reign for one year as Ms. SCC unless her enrollment at SCC ceases, due to withdrawal or transfer. Receiving the title of Ms. SCC does not end the excitement. Teresa has participated in numerous parades and public service events with still more activities planned for her. Representing the college as Ms. SCC is a full-time obligation. Holding important titles are Daphna Day Turbeville, 1st runner-up and Debbie Ann George, 2nd runner-up. Peggy Joyce Hill was presented the coveted Ms. Congeniality award.

Always emotional but never dull, readily sums up the pageantry of the Ms. SCC Pageant.

SCC CHRISTMAS DANCE

On December 9th, 1977, the Student Government Association sponsored its annual Christmas Dance. Entertaining the students was Mainstream from Charlotte, NC. Together everyone celebrated the start of the holiday's vacation with much fun and good cheer.

HOMECOMING '78 AT SCC

CELEBRATING WITH A CHICKEN BOG, BASKETBALL GAME AND HOMECOMING DANCE

SCC HOMECOMING QUEEN

February 10, SCC's 1978 Homecoming Queen was chosen to represent the school. Ms. Jeanie Yarboro, Homecoming Queen '77, crowned Ms. Rhonda King during the Homecoming basketball halftime. After the exciting basketball game where SCC came out on top, Rhonda and her escort left for the Homecoming Dance which was held in the student lounge. From the chicken bog to the basketball game and to the dance, SCC's 1978 Homecoming was indeed a special event.

AWARDS

AWARDS DAY

Awards Day: The Southeastern Community College Awards Assembly was held on Wednesday, May 18, 1977. Thirty-eight awards were presented to those students who had excelled in various activities, from the most valuable player in Basketball to the outstanding math student. At the same time the new SGA leaders were introduced to the faculty and student body.

Phi Theta Kappa: Southeastern Community College has a member chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, a National honorary academic society for Junior College students. College Transfer and Technical students maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.5 or better are eligible for nomination. The Chapter provides for recognition of academic excellence. It also sponsors service projects.

PTK

Officers

Sponsor: Mrs. Nancy Clifton

PTK Hosts Convention: Southeastern was very proud to have our own Chapter of PTK hosting the NC-SC- Georgia Regional Leadership Conference on campus, Sept. 30th-Oct. 2. Chapter members from NC, SC and Georgia came for leadership workshops and planning sessions. These visitors, along with our own chapter enjoyed working and being entertained together during the conference. This was a special and knowledgeable event for SCC.

DRAMA

Under the direction of visiting Artist, Howard Whitfield, The Southeastern Community College Players has developed into a large group including members of Southeastern's faculty and student body as well as actors and actresses from the community at large. The first play produced was a 50 year old courtroom melo-drama THE TRIAL OF MARY DUGAN. The play and casting established the SCC Players as successful and promising.

The cast of THE TRIAL OF MARY DUGAN.

Bob Priest, Coordinator for Student Activities and Sponsor of SGA, is always a good sport — modeling for a cosmetology student in need of a guinea pig.

Together SGA and Bob work hard to assist and entertain our students at SCC. Dances and cookouts are just a couple gatherings we share with spirit and enthusiasm.

SGA

OFFICERS:

Alton Peacock
SGA President

Jennie Yarboro
SGA Vice-President

Barbara Fox
SGA Secretary

Fannie Moore
SGA Treasurer

SGA: The Student Government Association is composed of all full-time students who are enrolled in college. Officers are chosen each year and each class is represented in the SGA. The SGA is responsible for providing means of effective student participation in the organization and control of student life. This year's SGA has taken the initiative to do an outstanding job!

STUDENT COUNSELORS

Student counseling is new at SCC this year. The program has been set up to assist the new Resources for Student Learning students in study skills and survival information. Student counselors are also just upper class friends. Student counselors are sophomores who are recruited in the spring of their freshman year, trained and selected the next fall, and intern during the fall, winter, and spring quarters. Major responsibilities include: 1) being a co-group leader at the fall RSL retreat, 2) teaching study and survival sills in ORI 101, 3) assisting students with career exploration, 4) working on special projects, including women students, dropouts, research and evaluation, and recruitment. The student counselors have been a real asset to SCC this year. I want to thank each of the student counselors for his good work, persistence, and dedication to helping others.

RAMBLINGS' YEARBOOK STAFF

Ramblings' supporters: Glenda Babson, Linda Blanks, Brenda Bernard, Delbra Gerald, Wanda Grissett, Cora McBride, Gracie Randall, Carolyn Shaw, Jean Strickland, Clarrine Thompson, Roberta Thompson, and Jackie West. A special thanks goes out to the yearbook supporters for their aid, we may not have had our SCC '77-'78 Ramblings. To the staff, I would personally like to thank each of you for your time donated to Ramblings. If each staff member donated as much of his/her time with enthusiasm and determination, he/she will have much to be proud of. To the staff, faculty and student body of SCC: If you see your picture a time or two, it will remind you of your involvement here at SCC — a sort of living proof. If you don't, it will remind you of your noninvolvement. No matter, these are your memories from SCC — always believe in them.

Rebecka J. Hood/Editor

Advisors:
Vincent Sweet
Gale Kingsbury

Photography advisor:
Chester Biggs

It has indeed been a great pleasure working with the Annual Staff on this year's Ramblings. As advisors to the staff, our job was one of ease because of the hard work and dedication of our editor and her staff. We know that the entire college community will enjoy this Ramblings now and in the years to come.

REFLECTIONS:

The possibility of people coming together remains remote as long as most of us want to be in front of the bus, the back of the church, and the middle of the road.

SOMEWHERE OUT THERE

Somewhere out there,

I have found my place.

gained Identity —

fought for Spirit.

Somewhere

Somewhere out there,

a star shines

as bright as fire

on my soul — taking hold.

Somewhere.

Somewhere out there,

the wind may blow

the tides may roar

the birds may soar.

Somewhere.

Somewhere out there,

I will hold tight —

to inner Peace —

Spiritual Light.

Somewhere. SCC student: Wanda Grissett
